

Grace Matu Photography Bio

Grace Matu is a passionate visual storyteller with a rich background in Theatre Arts and Film. Her photography celebrates the vibrancy of everyday life, with a signature attention to color that transforms ordinary moments into extraordinary reflections of beauty, resilience, and truth.

Guided by empathy, curiosity, and a commitment to justice, Grace Matu uses her lens to explore critical social issues such as Ableism and inequality. Her work invites viewers to look closer in order to see not just what's visible, but what's often overlooked.

Her dedication to storytelling has earned international recognition, including the Cinemonitor Cineonu Award from Duemila30 and Rome University. Her films have also been featured at festivals such as the European Film Festival Integration You and Me, underscoring her creative excellence and advocacy.

Whether documenting quiet moments or bold movements, Grace's photography educates, empowers, and uplifts, always with a focus on building equitable, decolonial communities through art.
